

For Immediate Release

Jan. 21, 2010

Contact: LaToya Sutton
Communications Specialist
Office: 919-516-4119
Fax: 919-516-4360
E-mail: imsutton@st-aug.edu

Saint Augustine's College announces new appointments

Raleigh – Saint Augustine's College President Dianne Boardley Suber is pleased to announce the following new appointments:

- Russell Brodie joins the College as director of study abroad and Quality Enhancement Plan coordinator. Brodie was previously a report developer/decision support analyst at AllscriptsMisys Healthcare Systems in Raleigh.
- Dennis Davis is the new executive director of the College's Community Development Corporation. Davis has more than 30 years of experience in the education field. He is also a licensed real estate agent.
- Maurice Stanfield assumes the title of director of sales and marketing at WAUG, the College's radio and television station. Stanfield comes to WAUG with 17 years of experience in sales and sports broadcasting. He is a graduate of Virginia State University and a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. Stanfield will continue as host of The Saturday Sports Show which brings national sports figures and sports talk to fans each Saturday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Power 750AM. In addition, Stanfield will continue his role as play-by-play commentator for Falcon football and basketball.

Other new employees include Dana Horne, academic advisor; Jarenda E. Williams, assistant professor; Shanna G. Shearin, instructor; Kaye Celeste Evans, visiting assistant professor of theater; Harmon L. Barnard, instructor; Kyle L. Lowrie, residence hall director; Dionte Gilchrist, assistant residence hall director; and Evelyn Anderson, administrative assistant.

www.st-aug.edu

* Saint Augustine's College* 1315 Oakwood Avenue* Raleigh, NC 27610-2298*